

Jack Holden

Actor / Writer / Producer

Jack's debut play Cruise opened at the Duchess Theatre in London's West End in May 2021 and was nominated for the Olivier Award for Best New Play 2022. The first new play to open in the West End after the lockdown theatre closures, Cruise was a monologue written and performed by Jack, based on a true story he heard when volunteering for Switchboard, the LGBT+ listening service.

Cruise returned to the Apollo Theatre for a sold-out run in Summer 2022, and it received its regional premiere at HOME Manchester in Summer 2023. A filmed version of Cruise was shown on Stream.Theatre.
