

Sarah Stirk

Presenter

Renowned for her expertise, knowledge and professional approach, Sarah is one of the main hosts of Sky Sports golf coverage, working across the European Tour and PGA Tour. She began her career presenting and reporting for MUTV, before time spent at the BBC, Setanta and Sky News.

Sarah moved across to Sky Sports in 2012, where she has become one of the network's most valued presenters.

Sarah's role is a mixture of studio presentation in London and hosting the output on site across Europe and the United States. She also acts as a reporter for the Major championships, interviewing the world's best golfers and operating the touch screen, otherwise known as the Sky Sports Golf cart! Sarah is a nationally accredited journalist and writes for various titles and publications including Golf News, The Mirror, Ultratravel, The Financial Times and The Telegraph.

Sarah is a 7 handicap golfer and keen entrepreneur having built a luxury golf travel business, which was later sold to Golfbreaks.com. She is passionate about sport, travel, fitness, business and personal development and is also an aspiring drummer! Sarah also recently launched a Women's Leadership Summit, which is sponsored by the R&A.
