

Steven Lee

Writer

Growing up in a small community in the Shetland Islands, Steven couldn't help feeling like he was missing out on the excitement going on in the rest of the world. That hunger for new experiences led him on many adventures, including teaching English in China for three years, serving in The Royal Marines and gathering three Master's Degrees, the most recent being an MA in Screenwriting from the National Film and Television School, where he received a scholarship from Creative Scotland.

Steven's writing explores characters from an intimate and often comedic perspective, depicting relatable outsiders who find themselves in unique and surreal settings.

Steven's feature, MASSIVE ADRIAN, made it to the final round of the BBC Writer's Room 2022. His first short, KATHY AND JEB, screened at The Lund International Fantastic Film Festival 2022. and his graduation piece, BANDITS, is due to start the festival circuit later this year.

Steven is currently working for Toff Guys, Guy Ritchie's company, as a Story Assistant.

Agents

Grace Baxter

Gbaxter@unitedagents.co.uk

Michelle Archer

Associate Agent

Grace Baxter

gbaxter@unitedagents.co.uk

020 3214 0991

Credits

Short Films

Production	Company	Notes
------------	---------	-------

BANDITS 2023	National Film and Television School.	Writer. Director: Nick Alexander. Producer: Emma Grazette. Starring: Mia Tomlinson (The Beast Must Die) BANDITS is the story of a young mum, Maggie, who does something extraordinary to try and carve out a better life for herself and her son, Kyle. Told from Kyle's perspective, we watch helplessly as Maggie's decision to hold up a petrol station brings him dangerously close to a life changing moment.
KATHY AND JEB 2022	National Film and Television School.	Writer. Director: Johannes Magnus Aule. Producer: Hayder Rothschild Hoozeer. A retired widow is forced to re-evaluate her life after being kidnapped by two crazed lovers on the run.