

Dan Harry

Presenter and Advocate

Dan was first seen on BBC Three's landmark gay dating show I KISSED A BOY. The show was groundbreaking as the UK's first ever gay dating show and he quickly became a fan favourite.

Dan is a huge advocate around queer identity and representation, which was touched upon during his time on the show, however he's keen to further delve into this further. In 2023, Dan was one of five volunteers to take part in the ground-breaking HIV Vaccine trial over a 12 month period, something of which he has discussed through media platforms and across his social media channels. Dan is also a partner with LGBTQ+ rights charity Stonewall to battle hate crimes.
