

Jeff Gulvin

JEFF GULVIN has been compared to John Grisham, Frederick Forsyth, Robert Ludlum and Tom Clancy, not to mention Ted Lewis the author of "Get Carter"

He's the author of three hard-boiled police procedurals, four international thrillers and five other novels. In a temporary step away from fiction he was asked by EWAN MCGREGOR and CHARLEY BOORMAN to ghost LONG WAY DOWN the account of their motorcycle journey through Africa. He has since ghosted both of CHARLEY BOORMAN'S BY ANY MEANS trips.

The Long Count 2016 Faber & Faber	Texas Ranger John Quarrie is called to the scene of an apparent suicide by a fellow war veteran. Although the local police want the case shut down, John Q is convinced that events aren't quite so straightforward. With his hunch backed up by the man's son, Isaac - back from Vietnam, and convinced his father was murdered - they face a desperate race against time... Dripping with atmosphere, The Long Count is a page-turner and a psychological puzzle - for fans of Shutter Island and James Lee Burke.
The Procession 2003 Orion; New edition	Maxwell Carter - a fingerprint analyst at the criminal justice facility in Clarksburg, West Virginia - was supplementing his income by running a very simple scam whereby positive fingerprint matches in old crimes could be conveniently 'ignored' in return for a small retainer. But then he caught a shark in his net - one that did not take too kindly to blackmail. Maxwell's illicit career - and his life - were swiftly and brutally ended.

The Covenant 2001 Orion; New edition	Washington is being brought to its knees by a terrorist bombing campaign. Ill-equipped to deal with the spectre of domestic terrorism the FBI call in the experts: Scotland Yard's anti-terrorist squad and Jack Swann. Meanwhile FBI agent Johnny Harrison is facing up to old ghosts as he investigates a series of killings - and unearths an old friend and a plot to arm the militias for the coming war that will tear the USA apart. For years the USA has been spreading internal strife in countries opposed to it. Now someone is doing the same to them, and only two men, one English, one American, can save the world's most powerful nation - from itself.
Storm Crow 1999 Orion; New edition	Storm Crow is the most feared terrorist in the world. He is on the loose on the streets of London, one step ahead of his pursuers. Meanwhile in Idaho, Harrison, an FBI agent, watches the compound of a right-wing militia leader with growing links to events across the Atlantic.

Sydney to Tokyo By Any Means 2009 Sphere	Charley Boorman returns with a brand-new adventure, travelling from Australia, Papua New Guinea, Indonesia, Philippines, Taiwan and Japan...by any means! Using quad bikes, hovercrafts, wooden scooters, canoes, paragliders and of course his favourite mode of transport - motorbike - Charley travels through some of the most exotic and exciting countries in the world.
Wicklow to Wollongong By Any Means 2008 Sphere	Bikes have always been Charley's first love, but he also enjoys a challenge. So when the chance comes to travel across three continents 'by any means', he jumps right in. Grabbing whatever local transport he can get his hands on, Charley travels from his home town in County Wicklow all the way to Australia - a trip of over 20,000 miles through twenty-five countries.
Long Way Down 2008 Sphere	After their fantastic trip round the world in 2004, fellow actors and bike fanatics Ewan McGregor and Charley Boorman couldn't shake the travel bug. And after an inspirational UNICEF visit to Africa, they knew they had to go back and experience this extraordinary continent in more depth. And so they set off on their 15,000-mile journey with two new BMWs loaded up for the trip. Joining up with producer/directors Russ Malkin and David Alexanian and the Long Way Round team, their route took them from John O'Groats at the northernmost tip of Scotland to Cape Agulhas on the southernmost tip of South Africa.
