

Michael Lennox

Director

Michael is about to start work as lead director and Executive Producer on an exciting new series for the BBC and MGM+ after having wrapped on A24's series CRYSTAL LAKE, which will be released in the US on Peacock and in the UK & Ireland on Sky and Now TV in 2026.

Prior to that Michael lead directed and exec produced Lisa McGee's new show HOW TO GET TO HEAVEN FROM BELFAST (Hat Trick/Netflix), which is set to be released in February 2026. Michael was lead director and executive producer on FX's show SAY NOTHING (Color Force), which was nominated at the BAFTA TV Awards and IFTAs in 2025. He directed all three series of hit Channel 4 comedy DERRY GIRLS for which he took the Best Director Comedy Drama/Sitcom Award at the 2018 RTS Craft and Design Awards. The show went on to win the Best Comedy at the International Emmy Awards 2023, Best Scripted Comedy award at the 2023 BAFTA TV Awards, Best Comedy Programme award at the 2019 Broadcast Awards and the RTS Awards' Best Scripted Comedy Award. DERRY GIRLS is Channel 4's biggest comedy launch in fifteen years and the biggest series ever in Northern Ireland.

In 2014 Michael directed the short film BOOGALOO AND GRAHAM, which premiered at the Toronto International Film Festival. The film won the 2014 BAFTA for Best British Short Film and was nominated for an Academy Award for Best Short Film.
