UMBRA'S LEGION: RIME OF THE GREAT PACK 2021	A young wolf pup and his cousins sit down to hear a tale from their grandfather about the origins of their species through an ancient folklore anecdote. Treachery, mysticism and heroism await in a fable about the origins of the Canid species! Set deep within the war-torn Umbra's Legion Universe, this story proves that not every tale is one of blood and bullets.
SHAMBLER'S OF WOE 2020	Rylan Charon and his sniper team are on the run. Marooned on an alien world and surrounded by a pursuing military force, the only place left to evade detection is a derelict Getran laboratory. In order to survive, they must batten down, call for evac, and outsmart their adversaries. But what terrors loom beneath the secret lab? And what if the facility they thought was their salvation, turns out to be their tomb?

NEW YORK GRAPHIC 1998 Orion	When a manhole cover falls out of the sky and beheads a priest, Virgil films it and sells the story to the "New York Graphic" - but one cosmic joke on its own won't get that staff job. Meanwhile, Larry dreams of the robbery that will make his fortune; can the duo kill two birds with one stone?
ADAM'S PHOENIX 2020 Independently published	It is often said that our experiences growing up help to formulate the people we become as adults. That statement rings true throughout "Adam's Phoenix", an autobiography set against the backdrop of the 70s and 80s. For those not familiar with the adult version of the young child pictured on the front cover, this read offers a nostalgic "slice of life" view of an era that many of us remember fondly. The book deals with painful stories of broken families, alcohol and spousal abuse, bullying, and a struggle for a young boy to find out who he really is and to ultimately define the man he will eventually become.
