

Peter Collett

Writer - non-fiction

For many years Peter Collett was a member of staff at the Oxford University Department of Experimental Psychology, where he taught and researched topics including body language, culture, management style, personality and television audiences. He has made numerous TV appearances and was one of the resident psychologists on Big Brother for the first four series, as well as on Celebrity Poker Club.

Agents

Caradoc King

Assistant

Becky Percival

RPerival@unitedagents.co.uk

020 3214 0932

Publications

Non-Fiction

Publication Details	Notes
THE BOOK OF TELLS 2004 UK: Transworld; Arabic: Jarir; Chinese (simplified): Capital Normal Uni Press; Dutch: Bruna; French: Lattès; German: Luebbe; Jap	A 'tell' is a poker term for a non-verbal action that tells you what someone is thinking and feeling even if that person doesn't know it. This ground-breaking book explores the world of 'telleology' through key areas of public and private lives – sex tells, aggression tells, political tells, royal tells, eating tells, work tells and sporting tells. It presents a radically new way of looking at ourselves and others.