

Emily Fairman

Writer / Performer

Emily Fairman worked as a corporate writer and corporate film producer before studying acting at Webber Douglas. After many years as a jobbing actor working in regional theatre and television she started writing comedy. Early credits included co-writing a comedy pilot sketch show called 'Hens' for Radio 4 and sketches for 'Radio Radio', an RTE radio sketch show. In 2008 she co-wrote a comedy pilot sketch show called 'Your Bad Self' for RTE and a subsequent series was produced in 2009/10, in which she also appeared.

Credits

Commercials

Production	Company	Notes
Fidelity		Corporate Writer
C&A		Corporate Writer
Henderson Financial		Corporate Writer
British Gas		Corporate Writer

In Development

Production	Company	Notes
3x3	Big Talk Productions/ITV	Original comedy narrative
Lottie's Lot	BBC	Writer

Radio

Production	Company	Notes
Radio Radio	RTE	Co-Writer

Production	Company	Notes
Hens	Radio 4	Co-Writer

Television

Production	Company	Notes
Your Bad Self	RTE	Co-Writer The series won the IFTA award for Best Entertainment series in 2011

Theatre

Production	Company	Notes
Temporary	Hull's Truck Theatre; Play, Pie and a Pint Scheme	Writer