

Nadia Fall

Writer/Director

Nadia Fall is a theatre director, playwright and film director.

Nadia is the Artistic Director of the Young Vic Theatre. Previously, she was the Artistic Director of the Stratford East. Her most recent productions there included ABIGAIL'S PARTY by Mike Leigh; THE VILLAGE IDIOT by Sampson Hawkins and THE SUN, THE MOON, AND THE STARS by Dipo Baruwa-Etti.

She was an Associate Director at the National Theatre from 2015 to 2018, where she wrote and directed HOME, a verbatim play about youth homelessness in London, a "wonderfully contradictory picture" (Michael Billington, The Guardian). She also directed CHEWING GUM DREAMS, written and performed by Michaela Coel, and THE SUICIDE, OUR COUNTRY'S GOOD and DARA, amongst others.

Nadia's debut feature as director, BRIDES, has just been completed. Backed by BFI and Ffilm Cymru Wales, the film is a UK / Italian co-production helmed by Oscar-nominated producer Nicky Benthams, and stars newcomer Ebada Hassan and Safiyya Ingar (Layla, The Witcher). Worldwide sales are through Bankside Films.

As Sky Arts Ambassador for Theatre, Nadia created the inaugural Sky Arts Artistic Associates Bursary. She was the recipient of the Breaking Through the Lens Action Grant in 2023, sponsored by Chopard and is a Screen Star of Tomorrow 2023.
