

Harrie Hayes

Actor / Writer / Performer

Harrie Hayes is an actor, writer and comedy performer originally from a small village on the Gloucestershire/ Wiltshire border. She is part of surreal, award-winning comedy group zazU. zazU have had sell out runs at the Soho Theatre and the Edinburgh Fringe Festival and are currently developing their work for television and radio.

Most recently, she joined the cast of 'Horrible Histories', taking on the iconic roles of Elizabeth I, Marie Antoinette and Freydis Eriksdottir along with many (many!) more. It's due to begin airing this spring on CBBC.

Harrie is also busy developing drama-comedy 'L.O.L' with her writing partner Muj Shah and BAFTA award-winning director Declan Lowney whose credits include 'In the Long Run' (Sky), 'Flat TV' (BBC3) and the Alan Partridge film.

Alongside fellow zazu member, Nick Read, she is writing character comedy show 'Karen & Alan' excerpts of which have already had outings at the Pleasance, Theatre Deli and Soho Theatre.

Her other television credits include 'Wasted' (E4), 'Doctors' (BBC), 'Coconut' (BBC3) and 'Pop Sludge' (4Music).

Stage credits include 'Benighted' (Old Red Lion), 'Deathship 666' (Leicester Square Theatre) and Guinness World Record holding comedy show 'News Review'.

Film includes, 'My Cousin Rachel' (Fox Searchlight), 'Antimatter' (Dir. Keir Burrows) and award winning short 'Eew'.
