

A E W Mason

A E W Mason was born in 1865. He became a successful novelist after failing to become an actor. He is best remembered for THE FOUR FEATHERS (1902, with a film version in 1939). His many other popular works include the series featuring Inspector Hanaud, which began with AT THE VILLA ROSE (1910). He died in 1948.

Agents

Sophie Scard

SScard@unitedagents.co.uk