

Oliver Frampton

Writer/Director

Oliver Frampton co-created the ITV drama LIFE OF CRIME starring Hayley Atwell. And has worked in writers rooms to contribute episodes of ELLIS for C5, CATCH ME A KILLER for MNET / Showmax, SISTER BONIFACE MYSTERIES for BritboxUS / BBC, and GRANTCHESTER for ITV. Prior to this he was a core writer on CASUALTY for BBC and wrote the BAFTA-winning 2018 "Christmas Special". He's been commissioned to develop original series with BBC Studios, Element Pictures, Two Brothers Pictures, Buddy Club, Tiger Aspect, Route 24, and Fired Up Films.

He also has a passion for horror. And is currently developing an original ITV psychological thriller THE CHARGE with BBC Studios / Buddy Club. An adaptation of Susan Hill's HAUNTS OF MEN with Element Pictures. And an original supernatural thriller, HEREAFTER with BBC Studios. His zero-budget horror feature debut THE FORGOTTEN (2016), earned him various awards as a writer/director, unexpectedly topped the iTunes chart for six weeks, and went on to a theatrical run in the US before being bought by Netflix.
