

Catherine Barr

Children's Author

After campaigning with Greenpeace for years, Catherine trained as a journalist and became Editor at the Natural History Museum, writing exhibitions. Since moving to the Welsh borders, she has been working with her partner in their design studio and writing books. Catherine is interested in writing nonfiction stories that spark questions and conversation. Her experience of becoming an author is fascinating, all-consuming and joyfully collaborative. She is a proud Patron of Reading for a local school and mother of two teenage girls.

Agents

Jodie Hodges

jhodes@unitedagents.co.uk
+44 (0) 20 3214 0891

Associate Agent

Emily Talbot
etalbot@unitedagents.co.uk
+44 (0) 020 3214 0950

Assistant

Molly Jamieson
mjamieson@unitedagents.co.uk
+44 (0) 020 3214 0973

Publications

Children's

Publication Details	Notes
The Story of Space 2017 Frances Lincoln Children's books	This beautiful follow-up to The Story of Life brings to life the story of our universe for younger children. Travel back in time to the Big Bang, see galaxies and stars form, watch the birth of our planet and how life begins, join the first man on the moon, and wonder what mysteries are still waiting to be discovered.

Publication Details	Notes
Ten Reasons To Love A Bear 2018 Lincoln Children's Books	Did you know that bears can sleep for months on end? Or that they hum when they are happy? In this book, learn all about why bears are incredible and 10 reasons why you should love them. Also features five ways to show you care "Each title showcases a different creature by detailing 10 reasons why we should love them, plus five practical ways we can protect them. With a strong environmental slant, it's a really fresh and accessible approach..." The Bookseller, May 2017
Ten Reasons to Love A Whale 2018 Lincoln Children's Books	Blue whales are incredible creatures! Did you know they are the largest animal on earth? Or that they sing songs across the ocean? Discover ten reasons why whales are amazing and five ways you can show they love them in this gorgeous picture book. A must for any young animal enthusiast and a fantastic introduction to environmental issues.