

Jane Foster

Children's Author/Illustrator

Jane Foster is an illustrator, textile designer and author living in South Devon. She works from a studio which overlooks the garden and a pair of lop eared bunnies. Her simple and happy artwork which appeals to adults and children alike is inspired by 50's and 60's designs and incorporates Scandinavian influence. Jane states that her purpose in life is to 'bring joy into other people's lives by creating happy illustrations' and this is reflected in her fun children's books and product collaborations.
