

Jack Murphy

Movement Director/Choreographer

Jack Murphy is a choreographer, movement director and dance teacher based in London. He has worked extensively in film, television and theatre.

His work aims to complement and realise the Director's vision and find a way, through working with the actors, to release the physical potential of the given moment. His breadth of knowledge in the field of movement enables him to support the Director's need for specific detail. This can range from the period movement of such films and theatre as Frankenstein, Vanity Fair, The Young Victoria, Remembrance of Things Past and The Doctor's Dilemma through to the more contemporary physicality and choreography required for Bridget Jones, Starter for Ten, Home or The History Boys!

He has facilitated the work of Directors such as Nadia Fall, Howard Davies, Mira Nair, Nick Hytner, Marianne Elliott, Josie Rourke, Jane Campion, Gurinda Chada and Jean Marc Valle and worked with the likes of Daniel Radcliffe, Emily Blunt, James McAvoy, Reece Witherspoon, Cate Blanchett, Colin Firth, Renee Zellweger, Daniel Craig, Frances McDormand, Ciaran Hinds and Gwyneth Paltrow.
