

Craig Parkinson

Craig Parkinson's outstanding acting career spans over 15 years. During this time, he has played the lead in a number of acclaimed TV series including; INDIAN SUMMERS opposite Julie Walters, PREY, THE MILL and the award winning MISFITS. Craig played the notorious Matthew "Dot" Cottan in the record breaking LINE OF DUTY, which last year became BBC2's highest rated drama in the channel's history. On the big screen Craig starred in BRIGHTON ROCK, alongside Helen Mirren, Chris Morris' riotous comedy FOUR LIONS and Anton Corbijn's lauded biopic of Ian Curtis, CONTROL.
