

Ellen Brammar

Writer

Ellen is a Hull-based writer. She was one of the BBC Writersroom's Northern Voices in 2020, delivering a TV pilot of I Hate Alone, and was selected for the BBC Children's New Voices Festival. Her latest play, Modest, had a very successful run at the Kiln Theatre, London in Summer 2023 and received brilliant reviews.

★ ★ ★ ★

this rollicking piece of gig theatre, written by Ellen Brammar ... shines in its humour ... the show bubbles over with charisma

The Guardian on Modest (Kiln Theatre)

Agents

Dan Usztan

DUsztan@unitedagents.co.uk

0203 214 0873

Assistant

Phoebe O'Donnell

PODonnell@unitedagents.co.uk

020 8057 6206

Credits

Theatre

Production	Company	Notes
MODEST 2023	Kiln Theatre/Hull Truck/UK Tour/Middle Child Theatre/Milk Presents	Dir. Leo Skilbeck & Paul Smith
HOPE FOR MY DAUGHTER 2020	Signal Fires	Short play
ANGEL 2020	Hull Truck	Digital commission for Meanwhile Festival

Production	Company	Notes
FIRST STORY: WALK IN THE PARK 2019	Back To Ours	Commission
TEN 2019	Hull Truck	Two ten-minute plays to celebrate ten years of Hull Truck's theatre
I HATE ALONE 2017	Middle Child Theatre	Dir. Paul Smith
ORDINARY PEOPLE 2016	Middle Child Theatre and West Yorkshire Playhouse	Dir. Paul Smith Rehearsed Reading

Television

Production	Company	Notes
NORTHERN VOICES 2020 2020	BBC Writersroom	Selected as one of 17 exceptional voices in Northern writing
BBC CHILDREN'S NEW VOICES FESTIVAL 2020	CBBC	Selected for festival
CLASS DISMISSED 2016	CBBC Script Competition	Shortlisted
CULTURED 2016	BBC Comedy Script Room	Longlisted