

Susanna Bailey

Children's Author

Susanna is a graduate of the Bath Spa University BA (Hons) Creative Writing and MAWYP. She has been a Lecturer in Creative Writing at the university for six years.

In a previous career in social work, Susanna shared in the real-life stories of many amazing young people and discovered how helpful stories can be when children are confused, sad, or afraid. She also learned of the healing power of nature; of wild, quiet, green spaces. She decided to see if she could write about these things...
