

Mobeen Azhar

Presenter/Journalist

Mobeen Azhar grew up in Huddersfield and has been a Londoner for the last decade.

He is an award winning journalist and film maker who makes access-based documentaries across television and radio.

He has produced and presented content across BBC Television, Radio and Online for almost 15 years

Mobeen received a BAFTA nomination for his BBC 2 series 'Generation Jihad'. He won an Amnesty International Award for 'Panorama: The Secret Drone War' and was nominated for a Foreign Press Association Award for 'Inside Gay Pakistan.'

His specialist areas include religion, addiction, sex work, Prince and Pakistan. His accolades include a BAFTA, a Grierson Award and a Royal Television Society Award.

Agents

Rosemary Scoular

Assistant

Natalia Lucas

nlucas@unitedagents.co.uk

+44 (0) 20 3214 0916

Aoife Rice

arice@unitedagents.co.uk

+44 (0)20 3214 0800