

Tom Chivers

Tom Chivers is a writer and publisher. He is the author of two pamphlets and two full collections of poetry to date, and is director of the independent press Penned in the Margins. In 2008 he was the Bishopsgate Institute's first writer in residence, and in 2012 he worked with climate arts organisation Cape Farewell to make ADRIFT, an exploration of the urban environment through poetry, creative non-fiction and performance.

Agents

Sophie Scard

SScard@unitedagents.co.uk