

Katie-Ann McDonough

Director

Katie-Ann directs for both stage and screen.

She studied Drama and English at University College Dublin and Theatre Directing at NUIM. Katie-Ann trained at the National Theatre Studio Director's Course. She also studied Script Supervision at the National Film and Television School.

She has worked on several projects for Mischief Theatre and has a strong background in farce, comedy, and clowning. She is also an improv facilitator. She was a participant of X-Pollinator supported by Screen Ireland.

McDonough's calm direction keeps things slick and stately

The Stage on Brilliant Jerks

McDonough's abstract staging has a terrific drive (pun intended) and energy, carving exciting drama out of some of the confrontations and sensitively handling the more intimate moments

WhatsOnStage on Brilliant Jerks

It's a very cleverly thought out show that truly puts the audience at the heart of the action

Theatre Weekly on Charlie Russell Aims to Please

At least five or six shows rolled into one, Charlie Russell Aims to Please is a laugh-out-loud and thoughtful comedy

Broadway Baby on Charlie Russell Aims to Please

Unpredictable and belly achingly hilarious!

West End Best Friend on Charlie Russell Aims to Please
