

James Meteyard

Writer / Actor / Director

James is an Actor, Writer, Director and Theatre Maker from London. Since graduating from The Oxford School of Drama in 2015 he's written and directed a number of pieces to critical acclaim as well as working regularly as an Actor in Theatre and Film. In 2018, James's multi-award-winning, gig-theatre production Electrolyte premiered at The Edinburgh Fringe following publication by Samuel French. Electrolyte subsequently toured to 35 venues across the UK & Ireland in 2019, before returning to a smash-hit sell out run at Edinburgh in 2019.
