

Aysha Awwad

Children's Author/Illustrator

Aysha studied graphic design at University of the Arts London and now freelances as an illustrator and graphic designer with her trusty feline assistant, Olive, by her side. She lives and works on the outskirts of London and enjoys getting out into the countryside as much as possible. Aysha is passionate about storytelling through both words and pictures and loves creating new characters and the little worlds they live in. When she's not writing or drawing you can find her knitting a jumper, whittling up a spoon or researching new crafts she can try her hand at.
