

Joanna Pidcock

Joanna Pidcock is an Australian essayist, librettist and theatremaker based in the UK. She has worked alongside esteemed theatre artists such as Katie Mitchell and Alice Birch, and has been involved in projects with the Schaubühne, the Barbican Centre, and the Hampstead Theatre. In 2019 she represented the UK as the British Council Young Artist Delegate to the prestigious Séminaire en Avignon residency, as part of the Avignon Festival. She writes about nationhood and identity through the lens of landscape and horticulture, and is currently learning to propagate plants.

Agents

Anna Webber

awebber@unitedagents.co.uk

+44(0)203 214 0876

Associate

Seren Adams

sadams@unitedagents.co.uk

+44 (0)203 214 0956