

Sarah Roberts

Children's Author/Presenter

Sarah Roberts is an Animal Behaviourist who works alongside the world's experts at the frontline of nature and conservation. She has experienced some of the coolest and most dangerous wildlife species around the world, from her job as a grizzly bear guide in the Great Bear Rainforest in Canada, to getting bitten by a shark on a deserted island with no doctor! Sarah loves adventure and is passionate about protecting the future of wild places and their inhabitants.

Agents

Emily Talbot

etalbot@unitedagents.co.uk