

John Patrick Elliott

Composer

John is an award-winning composer, music producer, songwriter and performer from West Yorkshire.

Since moving into composing for theatre, TV and film, in 2022 he won the Stage Debut Award for Best Composer for his score for Olivier-nominated West End hit Cruise. He has also composed for feature films and television, as well as commercial work for clients including Google and Samsung.

John has worked with world-class producers including Graeme Stewart (Radiohead), Brett Shaw (Florence and the Machine) and Sonny Johns (Buena Vista Social Club, Tony Allen).

Previously he spent years on the road as a touring and recording artist in the UK and Europe, garnering a cult following for his genre-hopping project The Little Unsaid, now a regular staple at Glastonbury Festival and receiving radio support from the likes of Iggy Pop and Guy Garvey.

He was also recipient of the Steve Reid InNOVation Award for boundary-pushing music creators, judged by a panel including Gilles Peterson, Four Tet and Floating Points.

In 2024 KENREX was nominated for Best Off-West End Production at the WhatsOnStage Awards.

Press for CRUISE:

"The Little Unsaid's John Elliott plays an electronic score that pulses softly throughout, beautifully building each scene with angelic, breathy synths as we go from phone line to nightclub to funeral and back." - ★ ★ ★ ★ The Guardian

"John Elliott's music is nothing short of extraordinary and does so much to set atmosphere and add high impact." - ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ Broadway World

"Elliott underscores scenes with his brilliantly composed live synth and guitar score... Holden and Elliott are working in a transcendent tandem. It is a heart-stopping moment of modern musical theatre." - Musical Theatre Review

"Entrancing...deeply atmospheric...songwriting of a real rich quality" - Clash

Press for KENREX:

"Holden is helped in this ambitious endeavour by an audacious and atmospheric live soundtrack that is composed and performed by John Patrick Elliott. Imagine, if you will, a musical score created by the ghost of Johnny Cash in collaboration with the celebrated duo of Nick Cave and Warren Ellis, and you will have something approximating Elliott's remarkable combination of country and western with dystopian post-punk rock music." ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ (Mark Brown, Telegraph)

"Holden's performance is only one of the highlights of Stambollouian's excellent production. Most apparent is John Patrick Elliott's live score, its loops and echoes bubbling up into acoustic alt-country songs, more hard-edged than romantic." ★ ★ ★ ★ (Mark Fisher, The Guardian)

"This is Holden's second such show; London audiences may have caught his multi-roling turn in Cruise, which played in the West End in 2021. Like that production, this one benefits from live onstage music by John Patrick Elliott, who here amplifies our sense of time – 1981 – and place – a sleepy backwater of Missouri – with toe-tapping country tunes, wistful folk rock and a pulse-raising soundtrack." ★ ★ ★ ★ (Holly Williams, The Stage)
