

Andrew Mensah

Writer / Comedian / Presenter

Having only begun his comedy career in 2018, Andrew quickly gained plaudits and was crowned winner of The Cavendish Arms Summer Competition 2019. His relatable style and ability to speak on his life experience in an unapologetic manner has established him as one of the most exciting emerging comedians on the circuit today. Mensah is a regular on London's up-and-coming comedy circuit, regularly playing venues such as the Top Secret Comedy Club. Andrew has been confirmed for Live Nation's Comedy Stop Tour later this year.

Alongside stand-up Andrew is also a presenter - he hosts both series of 'Fantasy Football League' accompanying Ellis James and Matt Lucas in presenting the revival for Sky as well as Premier League's 'Welcome to the Weekend.' He has had his first short film STILL NIL NIL commissioned by the BBC with Big Talk. Andrew also appears regularly on Capital Xtra around their football coverage.
