

Holly Khan

Composer / Sound Designer

Holly Khan is a British/Guyanese multi-instrumentalist Composer and Sound Designer.

She has performed, and had her music featured, at world class venues such as: the Royal Albert Hall, The Lyric Hammersmith, O2 Academy Islington, Oxford Playhouse, Summerhall Edinburgh, St Mark's Basilica Venice and Théâtre De Menilmontant Paris.

In 2024 she was nominated for Best Sound Design at The Offies for her work on Bellringers.

In 2022 she was nominated for Best Sound Design at The Offies for her work on For A Palestinian.

'The mood is one of hazy, hushed, rustic days, with Holly Khan's score finding the tone: subdued, mournful, resigned to life's hardships, but with beauty and playfulness too' - The Guardian (Tess 2024)

'Holly Khan provides an effective, omnipresent sound score, thrumming constantly underneath the words like Malachi's tortured subconscious, occasionally exploding into abject terror or total joy.' - What's On Stage (Dreaming & Drowning 2023)

'Designs from Khan usher us into wonderful suspended moments in time' - London Theatre Review (Blackout Songs 2022)

'Multi-instrumentalist Holly Khan's gorgeous soundscape is central and crucial to the storytelling. From the smooth jazz of a stolen kiss to the soft violins and haunting vocals of Liv's tormented creative process, Khan's tunes are elegant in their eclecticism. Her sound design is equally impressive. A leak in the roof drops into a bucket becoming the tell-tale heart of Liv and Kate's relationship' - Cindy Marcolina, Broadway World (The Beach House, 2023)
