

Kirsty Mann

Writer / Actor

Kirsty is a writer and comedian. Her short film Lady Brently's End screened at over 20 international festivals, 4 of which were BAFTA-qualifying (Aesthetica, LOCO, LSFF and Bolton International). It received 19 nominations and won 6 awards. Her debut solo show, Skeletons, started at the Edinburgh Fringe before touring Australia (winning the Comedy Award at Fringe World) and transferring to the Soho Theatre. On TikTok, her sketch collaborations have been viewed over 30 million times.

Agents

Talia Tobias

ttobias@unitedagents.co.uk

Credits

Short Films

Production	Company	Notes
------------	---------	-------

LADY BRENTLY'S END 2022	Rather Good Films	As Writer, Producer & Actor. * Winner of Best Screenplay at Exit 6 Film Festival * Winner of Best Comedy at Earl's Court International Festival * Winner of Chierici Jury Prize at Reggio Film Festival * Winner of Best Costume at Comedy Shorts Awards * Winner of Best Comedy at Oxford University Film Festival * Runner Up Best Screenplay at LOCO. * Best British Film Finalist at ECIFF * Nominated for Best Comedy at Bolton International Film Festival * Nominated for Best Short Film at British Independent Film Festival * Nominated for Best Short Film & Best Ensemble Performance at Indie Lincs * Nominated for Best Performance at Short Com * Nominated for Best British Film, Best Actress, Best Music, Best Hair & Makeup, Best Costume & Best Production Design at Comedy Shorts Awards
--	----------------------	---

Theatre

Production	Company	Notes
Skeletons 2023	Pleasance Edinburgh, Fringe World, Adelaide Fringe, Melbourne International Comedy Festival, Soho Theatre.	As writer & performer. *Winner - Comedy Award Fringe World 2024. *Nominee - Comedy Award Adelaide Fringe 2025.