

Lorna Rose Treen

Writer / Performer

Lorna Rose Treen is an award-winning character comedian, writer, actor and improviser, whose arrival on the scene has been remarkable.

Lorna recently performed her latest live show 24 HOUR DINER PEOPLE at the Edinburgh Fringe – it received rave reviews and had a sold-out extended run. It then enjoyed a sold out run at Soho Theatre in September 2025.

In 2023, Lorna made her much anticipated Edinburgh Festival Fringe debut at The Pleasance Courtyard with her nonsensical escapist character show – SKIN PIGEON. The reviews were extraordinary, with five stars from The Telegraph, who wrote: "Skin Pigeon is a gloriously daft hour from one of the most exciting young comics around." See below for further reviews. She also won the prestigious 'Dave's Best Joke of the Fringe' award.

Lorna became the first ever double award winner at the Funny Women Awards in 2022, when she won both the "Stage Award" and the "Comedy Short Award". Watch her hilarious, award-winning short here – MY ENTERTAINMENT BADGE.

Lorna won Chortle's coveted Best Newcomer Award in 2023 and has most recently won Best Alternative Act at the Chortle Awards 2024.

Alongside her award-winning live work, Lorna has made waves with her viral TikTok and Instagram sketches – which have amassed over 2 million likes and millions more views. Watch here.

As an actor, she has appeared in THE EMILY ATTACK SHOW for ITV, and voiced the Snake in an advert for PETA with Blink Ink with Jessie Cave. She played the lead role in short-film AS I LIVE AND BREATHE (Take the Shot Productions) which is currently doing the festival circuit now.

Lorna has written for radio, stage and online, including BBC Radio 4, BBC Radio 2, and BBC Radio 4 Extra. She can currently be heard in Jazz Emu's The Sound of Us of BBC Radio 4, and Katy Wix's Nora Meadow's Week of Wellness on BBC Radio 4. Lorna's BBC Radio 4 comedy series Time of the Week, co-written with Jonathan Oldfield, parodies women's current affairs and talk shows, and will be broadcast in June.

Her award-winning comedy short was screened at the London Short Film Festival 2023.

Lorna is also a seasoned improviser, performing with Improvised True Crime Documentary: Criminally Untrue as well as an alumnus of the Improverts, Edinburgh's longest running improvisation troupe.
