IT'S NOT A BLOODY	Nobody should spend their life feeling defective. Everyone deserves
TREND: Understanding	to have a user manual to their brain - welcome to yours.
Life as an ADHD Adult	Once associated more with hyper boys than adults, ADHD (attention 2024	deficit hyperactivity disorder) is now recognised as a condition in
Robinson (Little, Brown)	need of a rebrand which affects people of all genders and ages in a multitude of ways.
	In this enlightening and definitive layman's guide, Kat Brown cheerfully smashes the stereotypes with scientific evidence, historical context, and practical support for ADHD minds across areas that can cause problems, from finances and work to self-medicating, relationships, hormones and self-esteem.
	Based on Kat's personal experience and extensive interviews with ADHDers and world-leading clinical experts, It's Not A Bloody Trend is for anyone wondering if what's always been 'wrong' with them might just be undiagnosed ADHD.
