

Stephen Bill

Writer

Stephen Bill was born in Handsworth Birmingham and was educated at Handsworth and Halesowen Grammar schools before going to the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art. As an actor he appeared in, amongst other films and plays, Malcolm Mowbray's DAYS AT THE BEACH, Jack Rosenthal's SPEND, SPEND, SPEND. PRICK UP YOUR EARS, directed by Stephen Frears and Mike Leigh's cult classic, NUTS IN MAY.

In 1978 he won the Thames TV award to become Writer in Residence at the Crucible Theatre under Peter James and has since written extensively for both theatre and Television.

Agents

Judy Daish

JDaish@unitedagents.co.uk

Assistant

Valli Dakshinamurthi

vmurthi@unitedagents.co.uk