

Ben Shepherd

Author

Ben Shepherd is one of the UK's leading experts on politics and conflict in Central Africa. A former research specialist for the Foreign Office, he is currently a Fellow of the Africa Programme at Chatham House and a freelance consultant. Born and brought up in South London, where he lives with his wife and daughter, he spends a lot of his time running and cycling around London's forgotten corners thinking up stories.

Forthcoming publication:

Agents

Olivia Davies

odavies@unitedagents.co.uk