

Jane Lambert

Author

Jane was brought up on the West Coast of Scotland, studied Modern Languages at Stirling University, then taught English in Vienna.

She travelled the world as cabin crew, before hanging up her wings to become an actor. She has appeared in 'Witness for the Prosecution', 'The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-time' and 'Calendar Girls' in London's West End.

Her debut novel THE START OF SOMETHING WONDERFUL was published by HQ (Harpercollins) in 2018.

Her love affair with Italy began when she married a Neapolitan chef and her second novel, A SCOTTISH TEASHOP IN NAPOLI (Bedford Square Press, 2025) is her love letter to this wonderful city, its people and traditions.

Agents

Millie Hoskins

mhoskins@unitedagents.co.uk