

Xenia Patricia

Cinematographer

Xenia is a cinematographer working across fiction and documentary. With a background in Modern and Classical Chinese and Korean from SOAS, her approach to image-making is shaped by a deep curiosity for language, culture, and character. She has shot projects around the world, collaborating closely with directors to create visually grounded, emotionally resonant work that serves story and performance.

Her films have screened at international festivals including Sundance, Venice Critics' Week, Berlinale, Locarno, and BIFA. She is a recipient of the Panalux Award for Outstanding Cinematography and a member of Illuminatrix Rising.
