

Alice Oswald

Writer and Dramatic Rights

Alice Oswald studied Classics at Oxford and then trained as a gardener. She worked in gardens for seven years before publishing her first book of poems, THE THING IN THE GAP-STONE STILE, which won the Forward Prize in 1996.

Agents

Rose Cobbe Assistant
Anna Campbell
anna.campbell@unitedagents.co.uk
+44 (0) 20 3214 0821

Credits

In Development

Production	Company	Notes
MESSAGE FROM A LOST PLAY	The Author's Guild Foundation	Original play commission

Theatre

Production	Company	Notes
MEMORIAL 2018	Brink Productions / Barbican	Dir. Chris Drummond