

Jordan Sproule

Jordan Sproule is a Glasgow-born chef now based in London, best known for his appearance on MasterChef UK Series 21. After starting his career as an accountant, Jordan followed his passion for food and built a thriving online presence, sharing approachable, flavour-driven recipes with a growing audience. His cooking style celebrates fresh, seasonal ingredients and draws inspiration from British, Italian, and French traditions, with an emerging love for Middle Eastern flavours. Jordan's engaging social media content has earned him a loyal following, and he regularly collaborates with leading kitchen brands such as HexClad and Borough Kitchen, creating recipe videos and product showcases.
