

Allegra McEvedy

Writer/Presenter

Allegra McEvedy is a chef, broadcaster and writer with a mission to get the best food to the most people. Described by The Independent as "a caterer with a conscience", Allegra has been a chef for seventeen years, working her way through college, a clutch of London's best restaurants and an eighteen month spell in the States. During these times, she developed the philosophy that she continues to live and work by: that there are more ways for a chef to make a difference than by winning Michelin stars, and good food should be available to everybody.
