

Sofka Zinovieff

Author

Sofka Zinovieff was born in London. She trained as an anthropologist at Cambridge. She has worked as a journalist and book reviewer for various British publications, and has lived in Russia, Italy and Greece.

For more information about this author, please visit her website.

Latest publication:

THE MAD BOY, LORD BERNERS, MY GRANDMOTHER AND ME (Jonathan Cape, 2014)

Agents

Caroline Dawnay

Associate Agent

Kat Aitken

kaitken@unitedagents.co.uk

02032140931

Publications

Fiction

Publication Details	Notes
THE HOUSE ON PARADISE STREET 2012 Short Books	The House on Paradise Street is an epic tale of our times. Taking the reader from the war-torn streets of 1940s Athens to the partisans' mountain caves after the war, through the 'Regime of the Colonels' and on into the present day, this is a sweeping tale of love and loss, and what happens when ideology threatens to subsume our sense of humanity.

Non-Fiction

Publication Details	Notes
---------------------	-------

THE RED PRINCESS

2008

GRANTA

From a privileged childhood in Tsarist St Petersburg to dedicated member of the British Communist party, the life of Princess Sofka Dolgorouky reads like a seismograph of the great upheavals of the twentieth century.

EURYDICE STREET

2004

Granta

In the 1980S, a young English woman went to Greece as a student and fell in love with the country. In the summer of 2001, married to an expatriate Greek and the mother of two young daughters, she returned for good...
