TWO THOUSAND YEARS - SCRIPT 2006 Faber	The script of the National Theatre play. "Absolutely terrific, at times as screamingly funny as ABIGAIL`S PARTY, at others painfully touching and true as such superb Leigh films as SECRETS AND LIES and VERA DRAKE. This is vintage Leigh." (Daily Telegraph) "This is not simply a play about families. Leigh is also writing about the crisis of loss of faith: about a world in which people have increasingly lost their beliefs in politics, religion and social progress. This is a passionate, funny, moving and well-observed play." (Michael Billington, The Guardian)

MIKE LEIGH ON MIKE
LEIGH
2008
Faber

Five-time Oscar nominee and BAFTA winner, the only British director to have won the top prize at both Cannes (for "Secrets and Lies") and Venice (for "Vera Drake"), Mike Leigh is unquestionably one of world cinema's pre-eminent figures. Now, in this definitive career-length interview, he reflects on all that has gone into the making of his unique body of work. Leigh's work has always reflected its times, whether the harsh studies of "Meantime and Naked" or the humor of the now-legendary "Abigail's Party" and "Nuts in May". Above all, Leigh is an accomplished storyteller, and these films deal with universal themes: births, marriages and deaths, parenthood and failed relationships, families and their secrets and lies.
