

Mark Thomson

Writer / Director

Mark has been the Artistic Director of the Royal Lyceum Theatre in Edinburgh since 2003.

Before that he was the Artistic Director of the Brunton Theatre between 1997 and 2003 during which time he directed twenty productions, of which nine were World Premieres. During his time there he increased audience sizes and associated the Brunton Theatre with a national reputation for new work, Shakespeare and original pantomimes.

Agents

Rose Cobbe Assistant
Anna Campbell
anna.campbell@unitedagents.co.uk
+44 (0) 20 3214 0821

Credits

Theatre

Production	Company	Notes
DARK ROAD 2013	Edinburgh Lyceum	Co-written with Ian Rankin
WONDROUS FLITTING 2011	Edinburgh Lyceum/Traverse
A MADMAN SINGS TO THE MOON 2004	Revived at the Royal Lyceum Theatre
MOVING OBJECTS 2001	Brunton Theatre & Edinburgh Festival	Received a Fringe First Award and Herald Angel Award
COME ON FEEL THE NOISE 2001	Brunton Theatre	Scripted devised production of 1970s musical

Production	Company	Notes
A MADMAN SINGS TO THE MOON 1999	Brunton Theatre, Edinburgh Fringe, Revived at Royal Lyceum Theatre	Writer and Director. Received a Herald Angel Award.
CONFESSIONS OF A JUSTIFIED SINNER 1998	Brunton Theatre & Edinburgh Fringe	Adapted from novel by James Hogg
PLEASURE AND PAIN		Adapted from Maupassant Stories