

Adam Brace

Writer/Director

Adam was born in London in 1980. He studied Writing for Performance (MA) at Goldsmiths.

His first full length play, STOVEPIPE, transferred to London in collaboration with the National Theatre and the Bush.

His second full length play, THEY DRINK IT IN THE CONGO, was produced and premiered at the Almeida Theatre in 2016.

Shorter plays include MIDNIGHT YOUR TIME, a one-woman show for Diana Quick; THE FOUR STAGES OF CRUELTY, a co-written piece based on Hogarth's engravings; TAKING PART, a response to the Olympics at The Criterion Theatre.
